The ILWU Canada is calling upon the Maritime Employers Association to immediately end its reckless lockout of employees who work at the port of Montreal.

Customers of the port and the national economy will suffer if this dispute drags on.

Meanwhile, employees and their families are bearing the burden of the MEA's irresponsible decision.

Together with the port of Montreal longshore workers represented by CUPE 375 and the checkers represented by ILA Local 1657, we urge the MEA to end its unjustified lockout and get back to the bargaining table immediately.

On Behalf of the Officers of ILWU Canada
